Hello,

We're writing to let you know we've received a DMCA counter-notice about the materials you reported on the Twitter account @lporiginalg. The notice is copied at the bottom of this email.

As a result, we'll cease disabling access to the materials within 10 business days, unless we receive notice that you've filed an action seeking a court order to restrain @lporiginalg from engaging in this infringing activity.

You can provide this notice to us by replying to this email, sending a fax to 415-222-9958, or by mailing it to:

Twitter Inc.,
c/o Trust and Safety
1355 Market St, Suite 900
San Francisco, CA 94103

Thanks,

Twitter

Please describe the reason why you are filing a Counter Notification:

> lol. trollololol. I don't know if you represent [REDACTED] or Celcius but either way just because information is embarrassing to you doesn't mean that you own the right to have it removed from the internet. If you don't like it don't do porn, or hire porn stars to run your company. Nice try tho. See you in court!

Statement of mistaken removal or misidentification:

> I swear under penalty of perjury that I have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled.

Consent to jurisdiction:

> I live in the United States and I consent to the jurisdiction of the U.S. Federal District Court for the judicial district in which my address is located.

Service of process:

> I accept service of process from the person who provided notice under 17 U.S.C 512(c)(1)(C) or an agent of such person.
